

First Grade News

Jan.9-13, 2012

Reading: Our story this week is Let's Go to the Moon! We'll work with long sound of o and u and suffixes -y and -ful.

Spelling: See list and dictation below. There will be an extra surprise dictation sentence given on Friday for bonus points.

Math: We'll practice counting by 2's and 5's this week. Please practice at home! We'll also work with ordinal numbers and number patterns.

English: We'll learn how to sequence sentences in a composition. We'll do a "Picturing Writing" activity and write winter poems.

Social Studies: We'll learn about schools and communities of the past and compare them to now.

Science: This week we will learn about recycling and review Chapter 6 material.

Other:

- You may turn January book reports in!

Spelling:

so	hole	rope
go	joke	home
no	poke	*wrote
bone	stove	*chose

Dictation:

1. I can tell a funny joke.
2. It is time to go to bed.

