

For the week of Dec. 5-9

Second Grade

Reading – We will continue to read the story Anansi and the Talking Melon, then we will read a story called Schools. Books will come home on Monday and Wednesday. We will be working with the long e sound and comparing and contrasting.

Spelling – This will be a normal week for spelling. Words will come home on Monday, sentences on Tuesday, pre-test on Wednesday and final test on Friday.

Math – We will continue to practice working with money. Please continue to practice at home, also. Some of us are really good with money. We will continue to work with larger amounts each day.

English – We will continue to work with plural nouns and practice using the dictionary.

Science – We discuss how plants and animals live together and provide each other's needs.

Social Studies - No social studies this week due to music program.

Share Time – Bring something that represents your family or culture.

Reminders
