Weekly Newsletter

November 23 – November 27

Spelling Words

Due to having a short work we will not have a spelling test.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving!! 😊

We survived our first week of wearing our masks all day long! Your children are such troopers and have been doing great with this new change. Thank you for being so supportive and understanding!

Next week I will send home a schedule for your child to follow during the week of virtual classes. It will have our zoom information as well as when assignments are due.

If you have any question, please don't hesitate to ask.
