

For the weeks of Nov. 22-24 and Nov. 29-Dec. 3

Second Grade

No School Thursday, Friday, (Nov. 25,26) and Monday Nov. 29
Early out Wednesday, Nov. 24 at 12:50.

Reading - We will be working on some reading skills and dictionary skills. After break, we will be reading Officer Buckle and Gloria. We will be working with cause and effect. The books will come home to practice reading after Thanksgiving. There will not be a test over this story.

Spelling - I will be sending home spelling words and sentences on Monday and Tuesday, but the spelling test for these words will be Friday, Dec. 3. Pre-test on Wednesday, Dec. 1.

English - We will be learning about nouns.

Math - We will begin a new unit on shapes and geometry. We will also start practicing memorizing the subtraction facts.

Science - none this week.

Social Studies - We will begin learning about our country. We will learn about famous places, our flag, and talk about different states.

Share Time - Bring an item that represents the United States. Tell why it represents the United States. Just to let you all know, we will have a show-n-tell on our state and on other continents on another week.

Reminders -

All four book reports are due - Nov. 30

Have a wonderful weekend,

Carla Proctor
