

Mrs. Svendsen's Kindergarten News

Reading – We will start learning ‘heartwords’ this week. Heartwords are words that we must learn by heart. This week’s words will be the, and, of. There will be 60 words to learn by the end of the year. I would suggest starting a collection of flashcards at home to practice occasionally. Mini-books will be sent home on Fridays. Please have your child read it three times, sign the back each time, and then return on Mondays.

We are beginning to put sounds together to build consonant-vowel-consonant words (cvc). Continue practicing their Olympic lists at home. They’ve made such great progress already!

Our theme this week will be spiders. We will learn about labeling and the difference between fact and opinion.

Handwriting – We have finished learning all of our uppercase letters. This week we will begin learning lowercase letters with c and s.

Math – We will do some Halloween math this week as we review number sequencing. We will start a new math unit on matching and classifying.

Memory Game – If you have a Memory Matching Game at home that you wouldn’t mind us borrowing for a game day, please send to school with your child on Tuesday. Thank you!

Homework – Thank you for helping your child complete their alphabet homework on Monday and Wednesday evenings. I appreciate it!
