April 21-25, 2025

What's Coming Up?

Reading

We have been getting ready for the upcoming MAP test. Next week we will spend time learning how to navigate the test site and learn how to use the available tools used in the test.

Math Time

We will move to Unit 7 next week to learn about units of liquid measurement.

Science

Work on the science fair will continue as we conduct our experiments on Monday! Students are to bring any materials that they have discussed in class to use.

More to Come

Social Studies: Students will be working on their presentations about the countries they have been researching.

Language Arts: We will be working on a short narrative based on a book entitled, Bok Chito as our last writing before testing.

Don't Forget!

- April 24: Spanish Club
- April 25: Field trip to NE
- April 26: PTO Spring Fling from 5:00-7:00
